Doneo and ThinkFlood Partnership Brings RedEye Controls to Malta

Waltham, MA and Hamrun, Malta – June 15, 2011 – ThinkFlood, maker of award-winning RedEye remote controls, today announced a new distribution agreement with Doneo, Co. Ltd. Doneo is a leading distributor, installer, and retailer of custom smarthome solutions in Malta. For more than 20 years, Doneo has specialized in custom home technology from top global brands such as Phillips, Lutron, Bose, NEC and now RedEye.

RedEye is the leader in remote control systems allowing customers to use their own smartphones, tablets and PCs in a variety of home automation applications.

“I have watched the smarthome industry grow from infancy and there’s been a shift away from overly complex and expensive control systems – customers want solutions that cost less but are easy to use,” said Andrew Doneo, Managing Director of Doneo Company. “The RedEye platform delivers what’s been missing in the market – a simplified and affordable line of quality controls for the home.”

ThinkFlood pioneered smartphone universal remotes with the launch of RedEye for iOS devices in December 2009. This spring ThinkFlood debuted a second generation of control products, including a new home automation controller, RedEye Pro, and announced compatibility for Android phones and tablets.

“Doneo delivers so much value to the custom home market in Malta – expert consultations, installations and the best after-sales assistance,” said Adam Shaprio, Vice President of Operations at ThinkFlood. “Doneo takes excellent care of their customers, and we are excited to join forces with them.”

RedEye controls are available through Doneo's network of dealers and installers beginning this month.
